hey would fulfill the vision statement for the physical therapy profession: "Transforming society by optimizing movement to improve the human Nov 2013 ... Transforming society by optimizing movement to improve the human experience is a vision statement recently adopted by the 2013 2000, the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) has been guided by Vision 2020, a statement adopted by the APTA House of Delegates explore different analytic approaches to predicting performance for hiring and for optimizing internal mobility, to understanding and reducing turnover, Sep 2015 ... Transforming society by optimizing movement to improve the human ... The movement system is the core of physical therapist Feb 2016 ... APTA's Vision Statement for the Physical Therapy Profession: "Transforming society by optimizing movement to improve the human vision for physical therapy is â€œTransforming society by optimizing movement to improve the human experience.â€ How will you Feb 2015 ... â€œTransforming society by optimizing movement to improve the human experience.â€ History of the vision: In 2011 Vision Task Force Aug 2013 ... ... of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) adopted a new vision statement. It is: â€œTransforming Society by Optimizing Movementâ€. Mastering the art of optimizing movement for sport. If you work with athletes in any realm you have one singular objective: to attain greater sport performance in.